

SLO Committee Comments on 2010 Assessment Report: Department of Marketing

Your assessment reports continue to reflect a commitment to assessment as an integrated process: from designing assessment for each objective, to using the results to “close the loop” and make programmatic improvements. As you continue to make programmatic changes, and as some programs are phased out, it will be interesting to see how future assessment results gauge the results of those changes.