

Robert (Bob) Bowen
ServiceNow

Bob Bowen is an international trade attorney with more than twenty years of experience in the public and private sectors. Bob works for ServiceNow and focuses on leading worldwide activities related to compliance with diverse international trade laws, including export control laws and trade sanction laws. His experience includes the defense and aerospace industry, the computer hardware sector, and the private practice of law. Prior to his private sector experience, Bob served in the Office of General Counsel at the U.S. Department of Commerce in roles that promoted U.S. exports and addressed overseas market access questions. Bob has had the privilege of teaching various courses related to international trade at several academic institutions. Bob earned his B.A. from Miami University, his J.D. from the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law, and his LL.M. from Georgetown University Law Center. Bob is a member of the State Bar of California and the State Bar of Michigan.