

Myanmar & Cambodia: An Emerging Frontier

WEBINAR

Discover Opportunities in Myanmar & Cambodia

July 27, 2016; 8 AM Pacific

Venue: Your Computer & Phone

- Myanmar's expected growth rate is 8.5% for 2016, and Cambodia's expected growth rate is 7% for 2016
- Learn about favorable trade agreements and regulations
- Large number of available skilled laborers and growing middle class consumer base
- Myanmar and Cambodia are members of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN)
- Discover the ASEAN potential:
 - Population of 625+ million
 - Cumulative GDP of $2.4 trillion
 - Largest destination of U.S. investments

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?

U.S. businesses, especially those in the field of: energy and power generation, agribusiness, pharma, infrastructure and construction, engineering, manufacturing, information and communication technology, service providers, education, consumer products.

AGENDA

- Intro from Ambassador Scot Marciel*
- Doing Business in Myanmar from Manoj Desai, Senior Commercial Officer, U.S. Commercial Service Rangoon
- Doing Business in Cambodia from Anne Gillman, Burma/Myanmar, Cambodia, Thailand and Laos Desk Officer, International Trade Administration
- Real life experiences from U.S. firms
- U.S. Business Tour: Myanmar & Cambodia, January 2017

Invited, not yet confirmed*

WHAT CAN YOU GAIN BY PARTICIPATING IN THE WEBINAR?

- Market overview of Myanmar and Cambodia
- Learn about the strategic hub for global sourcing and manufacturing
- First hand experience from companies in the region
- Information about U.S. Business Tour: Myanmar and Cambodia in January 2017

A limited number of spaces are available; registration is required. To register:

Myanmar & Cambodia: An Emerging Frontier

For questions about our U.S. Business Tour: Myanmar and Cambodia, please contact:

A. Paige Bryant
(619) 594-8599
abryant@mail.sdsu.edu

Mark J. Ballam
(619) 594-3947
mballam@mail.sdsu.edu

Nancy Nicholson
(619) 807-0376
nnicholson@mail.sdsu.edu