

Robert Hill

Managing Partner, Deloitte Consulting (ret.)

Robert Hill is former Managing Partner with Deloitte Consulting. He has over 40 years of experience working with top management and boards to address complex business issues. He has extensive experience leading strategic, global technology driven transformation programs for Fortune 100 multinational companies in the automotive, technology, aerospace, life science, medical device and consumer sectors. His expertise spans M&A, Strategy, Information Technology (enterprise systems, digital and AI), Marketing, Supply Chain, Finance and Accounting.

In addition to his position as Managing Partner, Mr. Hill held significant leadership positions at Deloitte including Regional Automotive Leader, Regional Technology Leader, and Regional Market Leader. He specialized in serving and leading account teams for Asian clients like Renault Nissan, Toyota, Honda, Toshiba, Hyundai, Kia, and Nanjing Automotive and served two five-year expatriate assignments in Tokyo, Japan.

Currently, Mr. Hill focuses on innovation applied to the social and clean technology sectors. He is an Advisory Board Member, Executive in Residence, and guest lecturer at Cal State San Marcos, the University of San Diego and The Ohio State University. He is a board member and mentor to small businesses at the Chairman's Roundtable and consults to nonprofits at Social Venture Partners. Mr. Hill serves on the Rancho Santa Fe Foundation Board and is on the grant making committee, the Technical Advisory Committee at Cleantech San Diego's Southern California Innovation Network, and an Angel Investor with Tech Coast Angels.

He served as a shipboard Engineering and Operations Officer in the U.S. Navy. Mr. Hill received an MBA from Georgia Tech and a BS in Industrial Systems Engineering from The Ohio State University. He attended Executive Education at Harvard, Stanford, Wharton, Kellogg, and Columbia.