

Jared Ines

SVP, Associate Market Manager
San Diego Market
Merrill Lynch Wealth Management

Jared Ines has 15 years of experience in the financial services industry. Jared has expertise and experience in the banking and financing needs of individuals, companies, and institutions. Jared has held several leadership positions at Bank of America during his tenure at the firm.

Jared began his career in 2005 at Union Bank's consumer banking division. After completing his MBA in 2011, Jared joined Bank of America's Global Commercial Banking management training program. In this program, Jared participated in rotations within the credit underwriting, credit monitoring, and cash management teams. Upon completion of the management training program in 2013, Jared was promoted to client manager in the Municipal Banking and Markets department. In this role, Jared is responsible for leading the client team in the delivery of complex credit and cash management solutions to government clients. Jared is also a member of Bank of America's local business integration team. The goal of this team is to foster a cross line of business collaboration and deliver Bank of America's full capabilities to our individual, business, and institutional clients in the San Diego market.

Jared is actively involved in the San Diego community. He is currently the chair of the San Diego Bank of America Community Volunteers (SD BACCV) team. In this role, Jared is responsible for driving the volunteer investment Bank of America associates make in the San Diego community. Jared enjoys delivering free financial literacy training to low-to-moderate income communities through Bank of America's Better Money Habits program. He is also a volunteer basketball coach at the Mission Valley YMCA.

Jared earned his undergraduate degree and played collegiate basketball at San Diego State University. Jared earned an MBA from the University of Southern California and was a Consortium Graduate Study in Management scholarship recipient.

In his free time, Jared enjoys weight training, cycling, going to Aztec sporting events, and spending time with his seven year old son.
